

Gov. Robert D. Carey of Wyoming officially opening the new Hobac Canyon Highway between Rock Springs and Kemmerer, Wyo., and the south entrance of the Yellowstone, a trail through the heart of the old West of tradition.
Pacific & Atlantic.

The Duke of York gives promise of becoming a really great polo player. Photo shows him in action at Maldon.
Pacific & Atlantic.

Judge Walter W. Warwick of Ohio, former Comptroller of the Currency, who is now assistant to Brig.-Gen. Lord, Director of the Government Budget Bureau.
Harris & Ewing.

United States Ambassador Harvey presenting to Col. Sir Francis Younghusband the American Geographical Society's medal for his explorations in northern India and Tibet, at the American Embassy, London.
International.

Hazel Cole, one of the features of "The Plantation Revue" at the Forty-eighth Street Theater.

Members of the United States Shipping Board arriving in Los Angeles to make a study of harbor conditions. Left to right—Fred L. Baker of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding Corporation; Admiral W. S. Benson, former Senator George E. Chamberlain and Meyer Lissner, members of the Board; F. W. Relyea, district manager, and Erle M. Leaf.
Keystone.

Miss Geraldine Grey of Buffalo, the first person to be awarded a certificate for parachute work by the Italian Government. She will compete in the international parachute contest in Rome in October.
New York Herald Foreign Photo.

M. Raiberti, French Minister of Marine, and Admiral Sir Roger Ke honor at the unveiling of the Dover Patrol Memorial in recognition of the patrols, at Cap Blanc Nez, near Calais.